

Pearls Before Swine

2011 Art Show, Artist Reception and Silent Auction

"Expectant Buds"
Darcy Schneider – Pearls 2010

"If Pigs Could Fly"
Betsy Halter – Elgin Elementary School - Pearls 2010

Thursday, October 20th 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm
106 North Main Street in historic downtown Elgin
(just 20 minutes east of Austin on Hwy 290 East)

Elgin area artists, young and old, professional and student, showcase their talent!

Meet and visit with the artists whose work has been selected by a jury panel. Enjoy the art and refreshments with your neighbors and bid in the silent auction.

All proceeds from the show and silent auction are used to fund scholarships for Elgin area students planning to continue their education in the arts.

For more information or to make a donation to the scholarship fund please call Sarah Page at 281-3468.

The Pearls Before Swine Art Show is hosted by the Elgin Arts Association (EAA) and is generously supported by local merchants, individuals and artists. Melissa Cole has graciously provided the space for this year's show.

We appreciate your generous support of this local event!
