

Purpose

The Friends of Elgin Parks was organized in 2003 for charitable purposes to creatively secure financial assistance for the City of Elgin Parks and Community Development Department. In cooperation with the City of Elgin Parks and Recreation Advisory Board, these funds will be used exclusively to enhance and beautify current park and recreational facilities, expand current park facilities, and assist in long range plans for all the parks of Elgin.

Goals and Objectives

- To recruit active members.
- To initiate fund raising drives at Parks and Recreation Events.
- To gradually improve current Parks and Recreation facilities.
- To focus on enhancing one park area per year.

Invitation

The Friends of Elgin Parks would like to invite you to become a member of our organization. We plan on conducting meetings quarterly depending on the task at hand. Any interested individual or business representative may become a member of Friends of Elgin Parks.
