Letter from the President

Dear friends,

"April is the cruelest month" T. S. Elliot wrote. It does seem that our Texas weather will hint at perfect weather, then rain, then surprise us with a gloomy foggy morning. Another surprise for me this April is my tax bill. Due to the tax reform bill enacted in 2018 many of us are seeing increases in what we owe Uncle Sam this year. Luckily for you and me, our trusty Elgin Public Library is here to help. You can find the new IRS 1040 booklets (which includes Schedules 1 through 6), the 1040 instruction books, and Form 1099. There is also a handy-dandy list of nearby locations for free tax preparation help. While you are at the library, consider checking out a book or two on financial management or how to reduce your future taxes. The price, as always, is free- and that will be about all I can afford after I send in my check to the IRS this month...
